Books on Wheels

Books on Wheels is a free library home delivery service to anyone who finds it difficult to get to the library due to illness or mobility problems.

Who delivers the books?

Professional staff and trained volunteers will deliver your books.

What can be delivered?

We will deliver the type of books you enjoy reading directly to your home. We have the latest bestsellers, old favourites and everything in between. Many titles are available in large print or as audio books.

We can also provide all of the usual information services you would expect from your library.

When will I get a delivery?

We will deliver your books on a regular day and time once every three weeks.

How do I join?

It's easy to apply for the Books on Wheels Service - just contact the team on 03000 263 790. We will arrange to visit you to carry out a quick informal assessment of your eligibility to receive the service and chat to you about the types of books you enjoy reading.

Did you know?

If you use a smart phone, tablet, computer or e-reader, you can access a full range of e-books and e-audiobooks from our BorrowBox service, e-magazines are also available via our library online service, ask a member of our library team for more information on how to access our e-services or visit www.durham.gov.uk/libraries

Give a helping hand

Maybe you have some time that you could give to help someone who is unable to get to the library. Volunteer Durham often have opportunities for local people to become part of our Books on Wheels Service, delivering books to residents in their own homes.
